A GEOLOGICAL RECONNAISSANCE OF THE COAL FIELDS OF THE INDIAN TERRITORY.<sup>1</sup>

BY NOAH FIELDS DRAKE.

(Read September 3, 1897.)

INTRODUCTION.

During the spring, summer and fall of 1896, the writer spent six months making a geological reconnaissance of the larger part of the Coal Measures and adjacent formations of the Indian and Oklahoma Territories. The best maps that could then be had of the region were exceedingly inaccurate. In connection with geologic observations, sketch maps were therefore made of areas that were especially important. Nearly all the area south and east of the Canadian river, shown on the accompanying map, was sketched
